

Brandi Rae Hicks

ENCOURAGEMENT SPEAKER

Brandi Rae Hicks is the Professor & Founder of SERVE University (SERVE-U). SERVE-U is a training and development company for nonprofit leaders, grant writers, and servant leaders. With every project she serves, Ms. Hicks connects with communities that want to build a solid foundation of programs and profit, broaden their awareness campaigns, and help nonprofits move out of their own way.

Brandi Rae supports nonprofits and their rise to the next level and provides the right tools and resources to help leaders to continue the great work of giving back to our most deserving neighbors.

Brandi Rae has a Bachelor of Liberal Arts from University of Cincinnati and received both her Master Business Administration in Marketing and Master Public Administration in Nonprofit Management from Keller Graduate School of Management. Currently, she is a graduate student at Northeastern University Doctor of Education program. Brandi Rae is a published author of "10 Things You Need to Complete Your College Application" and is the Executive Director of College Clinic helping students and their families transitions into college and beyond.

Who do you know in the community that she can help their nonprofits serve more abundantly?
